1. Interpretation

In these Special Conditions, the terms defined in the General Conditions shall have the same meanings and the following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires:

Domain Name: the unique URL which designates the location of a particular website, as specified in the Order.

Domain Name Services: the services concerning the registration, renewal and/or transfer of the Domain Name more particularly described on the Supplier’s website at www.ovh.co.uk.

Registrant: the recorded legal owner of the Domain Name.

Registrar: an entity accredited by the relevant Registry to act as agent of Registrants in submitting Domain Name registration applications.

Registry: the registry responsible for the allocation of Domain Names in the relevant top level domains;

Whois: online research tools which are freely available on the Internet allowing any person to obtain contact information of the Registrant, administrative and technical contacts of a Domain Name.

2. Application of Conditions

2.1 These Conditions (together with the General Conditions) shall apply to any Contract between the Supplier and the Customer for the provision of Domain Name Services; and shall prevail over any inconsistent terms or conditions submitted by the Customer or implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing. In the event of conflict between these Conditions and the General Conditions, these Conditions shall prevail.

2.2 Domain Names Services shall be subject to any terms and conditions, procedures, rules and policy (including without limitation conflict resolution procedures) of the relevant Registry, as amended from time to time, and any amendments shall be incorporated in these Conditions without further notice to the Customer.

3. Domain name registration

3.1 Upon receiving the Customer’s application to register a Domain Name and payment of the relevant fee, the Supplier shall use its reasonable endeavours to procure the registration of the Domain Name chosen by the Customer with the relevant Registry, provided that the Customer shall fully comply with the registration procedure detailed in the following provisions of this Condition.

3.2 The Customer acknowledges that:

(a) Domain Names are granted by the relevant Registry on a “first come, first served” basis;

(b) the Supplier cannot guarantee that the registration of the Domain Name chosen by the Customer will be carried out by the relevant Registry;

(c) the list of available Domain Names featured on the Supplier’s website at www.ovh.co.uk is for information only and shall not be binding on the Supplier. The Customer shall be free to check the availability of a chosen Domain Name in real time by carrying out a Whois search on the relevant databases; the Supplier shall not be responsible for the content or accuracy of such databases.

3.3 The Customer shall be solely responsible for the choice of the Domain Name and warrants that such Domain name shall:

(a) not infringe the rights of any third party including any third party’s intellectual property rights; and

(b) be consistent with any and all applicable laws and regulations whether under English law or regulation, the laws or regulations of the Customer’s country or any other place where the results of such purpose or such Domain Name can be accessed.

Failure by the Customer to carry out a preliminary search before applying to register a Domain Name registration may in some circumstances constitute passing off and/or trade mark infringement, and the use of certain words such as geographical indications may be restricted by law.

3.4 The Customer shall provide all the documents and/or information required by the relevant Registry to enable the Supplier to apply to register the Domain Name with the Registry including (without limitation) the name and complete contact details of the Customer, the Registrant, the administrative contact, the technical contact, person in charge of the day to day management of the Domain Name and the IP address of the relevant Server(s).
3.5 The Customer warrants and confirms that:

(a) it has authority to collect and disclose the personal details of the Registrant, the administrative contact and the technical contact for the purpose of the application to register the Domain Name and the maintenance of such registration; and

(b) the information contained in the Domain Name application is true and accurate and acknowledges that the Supplier shall have no duty to verify the same before submitting the Domain Name application to the relevant Registry.

3.6 The Supplier shall acknowledge receipt of the Customer’s Domain Name application by email, confirming that the application has been submitted to the relevant Registry and that the payment of the fee has been received, but such email does not constitute confirmation that the chosen Domain Name has been or will be registered by the relevant Registry.

3.7 If the Domain Name application is incomplete and/or erroneous and needs to be modified by the Customer or cannot be accepted by the Registry for any other reason whatsoever, the Supplier shall notify the Customer by email as soon as reasonably practicable, and the Customer shall reply to such notification within two (2) working days. The chosen Domain Name is not reserved whilst the Domain Name application is pending, and may become unavailable whilst the application is amended, in which case the Supplier shall inform the Customer, who may choose an alternative Domain Name.

3.8 The Customer acknowledges that:

(a) any questions concerning the registration, renewal, cancellation, destruction or transfer of a Domain name must be raised with the Supplier and not directly with the relevant Registry;

(b) the mail address, email and fax number of the relevant Registry may not be published in the Whois search;

(c) any dispute relating to the Domain Name may be subject to the dispute resolution policy of the relevant Registry.

3.9 When the relevant Registry has formally confirmed to the Supplier that the Domain Name registration has been successfully completed, the Supplier shall notify the Customer the same within two (2) working days by email.

3.10 The Customer undertakes to inform the Supplier of any change in the information provided to the Supplier pursuant to Condition 3.4 by email at customersupport@ovh.co.uk or via the Supplier’s website at www.ovh.co.uk within two (2) working days of such change. The Supplier shall be entitled to suspend the Domain Name Service if, in the Supplier’s opinion, such information appears false or fabricated.
4. Domain Name renewal

4.1 The Supplier shall notify the Customer by email of date when the Domain Name registration is due to expire (the “Expiry Date”). If the Customer pays the renewal fee to the Supplier in full and in clear funds no later than the Expiry Date, the Supplier shall endeavour to procure the relevant Registry to renew the registration.

4.2 The registration of the Domain Name registration will automatically expire unless it is renewed on or before the Expiry Date, and thereupon may become available for registration by any third party.

4.3 If the Customer fails to pay the renewal fee within three (3) days after the Expiry Date (time being of the essence), the Supplier shall be entitled to suspend all Domain Name Services the Domain Name expiry date and shall inform the Customer by email.

4.4 Any application for renewal of the domain name after its expiry date may lead to delays in the effective online service. The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier shall have the right to change without prior notice to the Customer the renewal price charged by the Supplier for domains purchased outside the Euro zone, in accordance with fluctuations in foreign exchange rates (Euro / Dollars, Euro / Pound Sterling, Euro / Swiss Franc etc).

5. Dealings by the Customer with the Domain Name

5.1 If the Customer transfers the Domain Name to a third party, it shall:

(a) notify the Supplier of the transfer by recorded delivery letter;

(b) pay the applicable fee to the Supplier;

(c) sign the transfer documents issued by the relevant Registrar and comply with the Registry’s transfer procedure; and the Supplier shall not be bound to recognise any transfer unless and until the Customer has complied with all the above.

5.2 If the Customer licenses the Domain Name to a third party, the Customer shall remain solely responsible for the performance of its obligations under the Contract (whether or not such licence has been notified to the Supplier).

5.3 If the Customer wishes to transfer responsibility for the Domain Name Services from the Supplier to another Registrar (the “New Registrar”), the Customer shall comply with the terms and conditions of the New Registrar, and, unless the Domain Name in question is subject to a dispute with the Supplier or a third party, the transfer shall be effective when the New Registrar notifies the Supplier that the relevant Registry has registered the
New Registrar as the Registrar for the Domain Name. The Customer shall not be entitled to any refund of fees for any Domain Names Services in the event of any such transfer.

6. Domain Name compulsory transfer and cancellation

6.1 The Supplier may suspend, cancel or transfer the Domain Name, without notice or liability to the Customer, if ordered to do so by any court or Registry of competent jurisdiction.
